

Annual Speech Contest 2012

12 remarkable students showed enviable level of oratory skill in the Annual Speech Contest

The Linguistics Club of English Department organized a Speech Contest, held on April 4, 2012. Twelve chosen students from all four years of undergraduate studies were supposed to prepare their five-minutes long speeches along with a Power Point presentation.

All contestants showed a great level of self-confidence, oratory skill, and sophistication in their speech delivery. Jury members had a tough job but after listening to the contestants' highly outstanding speeches, they made their final decision.

The distinguished winner was Eldin Milak with his eloquent and profound speech. The second place went to Alma Milišić, while the third place was shared between Selma Salihagić and Nihad Eminović. The fourth place holders were both Adela Hasanić and Aldin Talić, and the fifth place holders were Džana Aganagić and Enes Tuncdemir.

Every contestant received certificates and valuable prizes that were kindly handed to them by the Assist Prof. Dr. Azamat Akbarov, the Head of English Department.
